2 Pearl Harbor Memorials

It is a day to remember Pearl Harbor and its WWII heroes. Your first visit is the USS Arizona Memorial, marking the resting place of 1,102 of the 1,177 soldiers and sailors killed on the USS Arizona during the attack on Pearl Harbor. With a deeper understanding for the United States' entry into WWII, let's see where it ended. Following lunch, join a docent guided walking tour of the USS Battleship Missouri. Stand on the surrender deck where General MacArthur signed the treaty to end WWII in Tokyo Bay. Return to the Hyatt Regency to refresh before dinner.

3 East Shores, Honolulu & Iolani Palace

Touring Oahu's East Shores reveals why people fall in love with Hawaii. Lush tropical rain forests, rocky cliffs and incredible views of the blue Pacific Ocean surround you. After lunch, a full city tour of Honolulu features the National Cemetery of the Pacific (Punchbowl), Governor's Mansion, state capitol building, Chinatown, the King Kamehameha statue, and the Iolani Palace - the only royal palace on American soil and the official residence of Hawaii's Monarchy. This evening, dine at the world-famous Hy's Steak House Waikiki.

In the botanical beauty of the Fern Grotto, hold your sweetheart close as you are serenaded with the Hawaiian Wedding Song and view one of Hawaii's most beautiful waterfalls, "Opaekaa." Afterwards, take a narrated train tour of the historic Kilohana sugar plantation and take in a tasty Mai Tai making demonstration. The Plantation House by Gaylord's offers Kauai's most authentic island dining experience, where local farmers supply fresh, seasonal ingredients. Arriving at the 3,400-foot level overlook, experience an unsurpassed 360-degree panoramic view of this geological wonder. This afternoon, fly from Kauai to the Hilo side of Hawaii's Big Island.
